The Year of Jubilee.
The 25th inst. is the day designated by the President of the Pennsylvania State Right League, for the celebration of the colored citizens of this State of the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment. This anniversary is observed by the colored people of this State, and is generally observed as such, and that on that day all business be suspended and all business places closed, and that all churches be opened in the morning for prayer and thanksgiving to the King of Kings for his wonderful deliverance, and that whenever convenient the remainder of the day be devoted to processions, and speeches, and music, and general rejoicing, and the evening to festivities, so that the day may be fully celebrated in each city, town and hamlet throughout the Commonwealth. And concludes as follows: "In honor of the new Government, which for the first time gives practical effect to the declaration of Independence, and proclaims Liberty throughout the land to all the inhabitants thereof, let Tuesday, the twenty-fifth day of April, 1870, be to us a day of joy and gladness, a feast and a good day."

The Anti-Slavery cause has at last triumphed, and the slave is now a citizen. His earnings are henceforth his own; it is no longer a crime for him to read the Bible. There can no longer be compulsory marriage, or compulsory separation of man and wife, under color of law. Not only are all trades open to him, but the ballot-box, also, and with his vote, he will complete his victory over all remaining forms of proserption. The whole history of the race proves that they will not abuse their privileges. They are forever to a people. In the midst of the war, the master left his plantation and his family in the hands of the slave with perfect impunity. There was neither retaliation nor betrayal, rapine or massacre. So now as citizens, the colored people will conduct themselves in a respectful and orderly manner, seeking education, trade, and homesteads. These are definite, and worthy objects of pursuit. If they are wise, they will not be diverted from such sensible objects of pursuit as these. They will not spend their time in the shuffling and scuffling of politics. Let them never fail to vote, and vote according to their interests as a class. But voting is not the main object of citizenship; only a badge and incident to it. The whites say a long way ahead of them in weight of numbers, in civility, in every thing; in manners, in wealth, in every thing. But God is no respecter of persons, and the emancipation of the colored race by His hand is such a wondrous deed as has a meaning and purpose in it, which the future can only make manifest. The next census will show us the numerical strength of the colored element in the United States with accuracy, but it will still be interesting to compare the new to those of 1860.

But the fight is not yet ended, for although Liberty is triumphant, its enemies have not laid down their arms. It is still the cherished dream of Democracy to overthrow all that has been done since the conclusion of the war. We have enough to do, then, to hold what we have gained. Let us take a glance at the numerical force of the new element upon which we may now count for assistance in this work. In 1860 the colored population of the States then in the Union was as follows:

Alabama	437,719
Arkansas	10,948
California	8,627
Connecticut	2,577
Florida	12,123
Georgia	252,729
Illinois	112,123
Indiana	127,123
Iowa	127,123
Kentucky	252,729
Louisiana	127,123
Maine	127,123
Maryland	127,123
Massachusetts	127,123
Michigan	127,123
Minnesota	127,123
Mississippi	127,123
Missouri	127,123
Montana	127,123
New Hampshire	127,123
New Jersey	127,123
New York	127,123
Ohio	127,123
Oregon	127,123
Rhode Island	127,123
South Carolina	127,123
Texas	127,123
Vermont	127,123
Virginia	127,123
Washington	127,123
West Virginia	127,123
Wisconsin	127,123

In the following States it will be interesting to compare the numbers of the white and colored population respectively:

Alabama	528,771	437,719
Arkansas	224,119	10,948
California	252,729	8,627
Connecticut	252,729	2,577
Florida	127,123	12,123
Georgia	252,729	252,729
Illinois	127,123	112,123
Indiana	127,123	127,123
Iowa	127,123	127,123
Kentucky	252,729	127,123
Louisiana	127,123	127,123
Maine	127,123	127,123
Maryland	127,123	127,123
Massachusetts	127,123	127,123
Michigan	127,123	127,123
Minnesota	127,123	127,123
Mississippi	127,123	127,123
Missouri	127,123	127,123
Montana	127,123	127,123
New Hampshire	127,123	127,123
New Jersey	127,123	127,123
New York	127,123	127,123
Ohio	127,123	127,123
Oregon	127,123	127,123
Rhode Island	127,123	127,123
South Carolina	127,123	127,123
Texas	127,123	127,123
Vermont	127,123	127,123
Virginia	127,123	127,123
Washington	127,123	127,123
West Virginia	127,123	127,123
Wisconsin	127,123	127,123

In all the late reconstructed States the colored element constitutes the strength of the Republican party. In Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri it will give a new and large reinforcement to the Republican vote. In New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and other close States it may be strong enough to decide the result.

miles; and also another list showing the number of cables under contract to be completed during this and next year, with a total of 90,823. Mr. Field pressed on the committee the importance of establishing a submarine cable line from San Francisco to the Sandwich Islands, Japan and China, which would require, with the usual allowance for slack, over 3,000 miles of cable. This line would complete the circuit of the globe in connection with the lines now in working order and the cables now under contract to be laid.

The Case of Alexander Negrees Not Yet Provided For.

On March 21, J. Alexander Simpson, Esq., a distinguished member of the Philadelphia bar, presented to the Judges of the District Court in that city, the petition of a colored man of foreign birth, who desired to become a citizen of the United States, he having resided in that city for forty years. He was well recommended and spoken of as a respectable man and a respectable witness testified that he had known him personally for twenty years. The Court refused the petition, the Judges basing the refusal upon the ground that he had no power to go behind the statute regulating the naturalization of aliens. Mr. Simpson, being much interested in this case, the first on record, pressed the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, and the change of popular sentiment in the present age, as reasons why it should be granted. His Honor Judge Harbo, stated that the provisions of the law extended only to alien white men, and it could not be granted. A letter was written to Hon. Charles Sumner, informing him of the above facts, and arguing that a large number of Americans were driven from their homes by the fiendish slave tyrants, and became subjects of foreign governments, many of whom had returned, and many more were anxious to return, and inquiring if there was not a law to reach cases of the character stated, that the franchise might enjoy the privileges of the franchise act. Mr. Sumner replied on March 23, as follows: "It is with a feeling of shame that I am aware that the discrimination in favor of white men still lingers in our naturalization laws. I have introduced a bill to strike out this last relic of former days, and it is now before the Judiciary Committee awaiting their report."

OKLAHOMA.—Senator Rios's bill creating the Territory of Oklahoma is intended to try the experiment of civilizing the Indian. The region is the old Indian Territory, chiefly occupied by the Cherokee, Creek and Choctaw. The President is appointing the territorial officers, all of whom it is believed, will not be white men, if capable Indians can be found, as probably they can be among the Cherokee and other tribes advanced in civilization. Through the council, the Indian "who have adopted the customs of civilized life" (this restriction limits in the principal tribes) will be enabled to take a direct part in the legislative affairs of the territory. Every male Indian, over 21 years old, belonging to such tribes, will be entitled to vote for congressional delegates from this tribe, and be eligible to a seat in that body.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

NOTICE.—I have sold my stock and good will to R. K. Koon, who will continue the business, at the old stand, 100 North Franklin Street, for the very liberal patronage. I take a pleasure in the same to my successor.

Caution—Andacious Counterfeit.

The reputation which, for many years, has attached to "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," as the standard tonic of this age, and the large demand for the article, not only in the United States, but in all the civilized countries of the world, has induced some unscrupulous and unprincipled persons to counterfeit the genuine article, and to sell the same under the name of "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," with the intention of obtaining the same price as the genuine article. The public are therefore, especially advised to purchase Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and to be careful to see that the name of the proprietor, J. C. Hostetter, is printed on the wrapper, and that the name of the proprietor, J. C. Hostetter, is printed on the wrapper, and that the name of the proprietor, J. C. Hostetter, is printed on the wrapper.
